*Includes $20 disregard. Slightly less than half of earned income is counted. (After subtracting $65, count half of earned income.) If there is earned income, best to apply using paper application which asks about earned income. Monthly income from tax-qualified retirement plans is not counted either. See over for more details on countable income.

Note: Persons with Medicare + Medi-Cal with a Share of Cost may qualify for Extra Help in one of two ways. First, if their income is below the LIS limits shown above, they may apply for these benefits through Social Security. Second, they will qualify for the LIS for the rest of the calendar year beginning with the first month they meet their Share of Cost. If they meet their Share of Cost in the last half of the year, they will continue to qualify for LIS for the following year. (See over.)

What is LIS?

LIS stands for the Low Income Subsidy. It is also known by Social Security's term: "Extra Help for prescription drug coverage." This program provides significant savings on drug premiums and co-payments for those who qualify. The benefits apply only to Medicare Part D drug plans or Part D benefits in Medicare Advantage plans.

Who qualifies? There are two ways to qualify:

- Most persons complete an application (on-line or on paper) and submit it to Social Security Administration. SSA prefers on-line applications. HICAP counselors as well as family members or friends can apply on behalf of a client.
- Some persons are "deemed eligible." They do not have to apply. Individuals are deemed eligible for LIS if they have full Medi-Cal (no share of cost) or if they are in one of the Medicare Savings Programs (QMB, SLMB, Q-I).

What are the criteria for qualifying?

- Income not more than $1,615/mo. single* or $2,175/mo. married*
 - Assets not more than $14,610 single or $29,160 married
- Includes standard $20 disregard. After subtracting $65, only half of earned income is counted. Monthly payments from tax qualified plans such as IRA's and 401k's are not counted as income. Contributions from others to pay household expenses are not counted.

What are the benefits? Benefits vary, depending on level of Extra Help. The level of LIS/Extra Help is based on income and assets. See chart on reverse.

Other key points:

- Level 1 benefits: $0 premium, copays or deductibles. Applies to those with full Medi-Cal and resident in a SNF or receiving Home and Community Based Services. Receipt of In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) does not qualify a person for $0 co-pays.
- Persons in a retiree plan that includes prescription coverage will generally not be able to receive LIS benefits, even if qualified by income and assets. (FEHB and other federal insurance rules differ; see HICAP staff.)

Benefits applying to all LIS recipients:

- Can change their PDP or MA plan once per quarter through Sept. 30th each year
- No donut hole is applicable
- Once LIS status is attained, it is good for at least the current year
- Once qualified for LIS, any current Part D late enrollment penalties are permanently ended

Benchmark plan: A prescription drug plan which offers basic benefits and requires no monthly premium for persons who qualify for full LIS benefits. As of 2020 there are seven benchmark plans in California, noted on reverse. Note that benchmark plans may still have restrictions on certain drugs and formulary limitations.

A person with LIS is not required to be in a benchmark plan. In some cases a more expensive plan will offer better coverage for their prescriptions. In this case the approximate benchmark amount ($32.01 in 2020) will be deducted from the premium they must pay the plan. If a Medicare Advantage plan allocates part of its premium to Part D, there will also be a premium discount on that portion.
